

MTG House Buying/ Survey Scans

Home Buying Survey Scans are used to find out which property/building site (that you have independently sourced) is the most harmonious and auspicious for you and your family to make your home.

Getting a professional Feng Shui Consultant to look at a prospective property from a Feng Shui point of view prior to putting in an official offer on such an expensive investment can prove quite invaluable in a lot of cases, for both the private individuals and Property Developers alike.

It is important to understand that the characteristics of the environment are the single most important fundamentals of the Feng Shui of a place, as they carry the natural chi of nature and therefore are the most difficult energies to remove, besides which removing natural features is not part of Feng Shui ethics. If the natural features carry too much negative and destructive energy we must honour this rather than try to contend with it.

MTG House Buying/ Survey Scans

MTG Feng Shui investigates the three most important factors in evaluating the external environment:

- Finding protection.
- Avoiding destructive negative energy.
- Receiving as much of the auspicious energy as possible.

By accomplishing all of the above one can encourage health, prosperity, harmony and success in endeavours for the potential occupant.

Cost -

The cost of a House Buying Mini Survey is £125 and £50 for any additional properties that you wish to be surveyed within fifteen minutes drive of the initial one, with a 50% deposit to secure your Appointment.
